From Mrs Browning:

Thank you to all that provided suggestions for our new look newsletter.

Well done to all children in Saturn Class for representing our school so well at your cluster sports event this week. I am so proud of you all.

Please ensure that children do not play in the Reception outdoor learning area before and after school—this is part of their classroom. Thank you.

Next week is Arts Week, which includes our sports day. Thank you to the Broadway Arts Festival for providing opportunities to work with musicians, artists and authors next week. Take a look at the Broadway Arts Festival pages for families: <https://broadwayartsfestival.com/events/category/family-programme/> to find information on opportunities for your child (ren) in the village such as the free ceramic workshop. Years Four and Five will be part of a concert on the Green at 4.00 pm on Monday. Please come and see them if you can!

Notices

Class Two

On Thursday morning, Saturn Class and three Young Leaders went to Bredons Hancock's playing fields to take part in a cluster event. The children took part in a range of multi skills events including; javelin, obstacle courses and sack races. The Young Leaders managed the javelin event and were fantastic! We all had a brilliant time and the children were a real credit to our school.
